

Ann Covell Council

Ann Covell Council is a life-time resident of Richmond, Texas. Her great uncle settled in Richmond in 1913 and her parents came to Richmond in 1935. She is a graduate of Sam Houston State and taught at Lamar Junior High School. She currently holds a Texas Real Estate Broker license. Ann has served as secretary of the board of the Fort Bend County Museum and is a charter member of the museum docents. She was a member of the Home Rule Charter Commission for the City of Richmond. Ann was the first woman to serve on the Board of the Rosenberg-Richmond Chamber of Commerce. She has a deep love for her community and always tries to “give back”.
